G. Read the following letter sent by the school authorities and answer the questions that follow.

Dear Parent/Guardian,

As part of your child's studies for ICSE examination, s/he is studying the play 'Much Ado About Nothing' by William Shakespeare.

This play is about to enter the final weeks of its long run at Bach Theatre and the school has booked tickets for students to see it on Monday, 22 May. The tickets are for ₹ 200 including travel. Students will need to gather at the front of the school at 5.30 p.m. to meet the staff and board the coach.

The play begins at 7.30 p.m. and lasts for approximately two hours. The coach will reach the school with the students at around 11.00 p.m. where they will need to be received by their parents or guardians.

1. Whom will you take this letter to, at home?
2. What type of text is this letter—persuasive writing, informative writing or instructive writing?
3. What is 'Much Ado About Nothing'?
4. Where is the play being staged?
5. When will the students see the play?
6. Why should the students gather two hours before the play begins?
7. How will the students return home after the play?

H. Complete the following extract from 'The Path that Led Nowhere' with the antonyms of the words given in the box.

Harry had looked _____ (backward) to his annual holiday. Working hard at the City Centre, the daily grind had started to get to him and he had got _____ (more) time for pleasures such as relaxation. The holiday had been booked for weeks. He had looked forward to a country retreat, _____ (close by) from the hustle and bustle of work. This apartment in an eighteenth-century mansion had caught his eye as it promised _____ (ordinary) cuisine, _____ (ugly) interior decor and a range of _____ (urban) pursuits such as clay pigeon shooting and horse riding. This Sunday morning though, _____ (few) activities were cancelled due to the low-lying mist. _____ (unconcerned) not to let the day slip away, Harry decided that a walk through the _____ (faraway) forest would enable him to relax. So he _____ (returned) just after breakfast.

He headed towards the forest with a _____ (gigantic) packed lunch in case the mist prevented him from _____ (going) to the mansion _____ (after) lunchtime. As he walked along the path, the twigs snapped _____ (over) his feet and the dew from the trees dripped on to his shoulder. Harry heard the birds sitting in the trees _____ (below) him, letting him know that he wasn't alone.
